Dear Mr. Silvers,

When you were kind enough to take the time to speak to me a month ago you said that my article on Gerald Posner and his book could interest you and that you would read it as soon as it reached you.

Because I've not heard from you since then I write to ask if you have reached a decision or have not yet done that.

If you reached a decision not to do it I will appreciate knowing it because I will then try to place the article elsewhere.

In that event I'll appreciate its return and I'll send you the postage when I see how much it is.

Of course I hope you have not reached that decision.

But I am 81 and unwell.

Past September, that is.

And I do have fewer days.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
